

In 2018, Cabo Verde made a moderate advancement in efforts to eliminate the worst forms of child labor. The government approved and published its first National Action Plan to Combat Trafficking in Persons and revised the Education Law to extend free tuition up to the eighth grade. In July, the national government established the Observatory for Monitoring and Rapid Identification of Situations of Trafficking in Persons, a major coordinating body created to respond to all human trafficking situations around the archipelago, which convened twice during the year. However, children in Cabo Verde engage in the worst forms of child labor in commercial sexual exploitation. Children also perform dangerous tasks in agriculture. Law enforcement officials lack the necessary resources to follow up on investigations, and communication between enforcement agencies is limited. In addition, social programs to assist children involved in agriculture and domestic work are not sufficient to address the scope of the problem.

I. PREVALENCE AND SECTORAL DISTRIBUTION OF CHILD LABOR

Children in Cabo Verde engage in the worst forms of child labor in commercial sexual exploitation. Children also perform dangerous tasks in agriculture. (1,2) Table 1 provides key indicators on children's work and education in Cabo Verde.

MODERATE ADVANCEMENT

Limited research found that commercial sexual exploitation of both boys and girls, including in the tourism industry, occurs on the islands of Brava, Santiago, Fogo, Sal, and Boa Vista. (1)

II. LEGAL FRAMEWORK FOR CHILD LABOR

The Civil Code includes a list of light work activities that children age 14 are allowed to perform; however, the law does not prescribe the number of hours per week permissible for light work or specify the conditions under which light work may be performed. (13,19)

During the reporting period, the government extended free tuition from sixth grade up to eighth grade by revising the Education Law. (2,20)

III. ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS ON CHILD LABOR

The government has established institutional mechanisms for the enforcement of laws and regulations on child labor (Table 5). However, gaps exist within the operations of the Inspector General for Labor (IGT) that may hinder adequate enforcement of their child labor laws.

Table 5. Agencies Responsible for Child Labor Law Enforcement

Organization/Agency	Role
Inspector General for Labor	Monitors and enforces child labor laws, working closely with the Cabo Verdean Institute for Children and Adolescents (ICCA). (21,22)
Judicial Police and National Police	Judicial Police conducts criminal investigations; National Police makes arrests related to the worst forms of child labor, including human trafficking. (22,23)

Labor Law Enforcement

In 2018, labor law enforcement agencies in Cabo Verde took actions to combat child labor (Table 6). However, gaps exist within the operations of the IGT that may hinder adequate labor law enforcement, including financial and human resource allocation.

Table 6. Labor Law Enforcement Efforts Related to Child Labor

Although the total number of child labor violations is unknown for the reporting period, the Cabo Verdean Institute for Children and Adolescents (ICCA) reported 10 cases of child labor violations in 2018. (2,26)

The IGT conducted labor inspections in the formal sector throughout the country and received several trainings during the year, including on child labor; however, reports indicate that inspectors lack the necessary resources to perform inspections in sectors in which child labor is known to occur, including the informal sector. (2)

When IGT inspectors find a case of child labor, they inform the ICCA for referral to social services providers. (27)

Criminal Law Enforcement

In 2018, criminal law enforcement agencies in Cabo Verde took actions to combat child labor (Table 7). However, gaps exist within the operations of the criminal enforcement agencies that may hinder adequate criminal law enforcement, including allocating human resources.

MODERATE ADVANCEMENT

During 2018, UNODC led two training workshops on human trafficking for various law enforcement and government personnel, including representatives of civil society organizations from all over the country. The trainings prioritized the investigation and prosecution of cases, and the protection and assistance of victims. An annual work plan was developed to incorporate objectives of the National Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons. (28) Law enforcement officials attended and participated in several other human trafficking trainings, including a training at the West Africa Regional Training Center in Ghana. (29)

Although the government did not provide specific data on child trafficking, reports indicate that the Judicial Police investigated a labor trafficking case involving two Chinese minors, ages 16 and 17, on the island of Sal. Three suspects were detained, a Cabo Verdean female and two Asian males, in connection to the case; as of the end of the reporting period, the case was still pending in Cabo Verdean courts. (2,30) In February 2018, convictions were secured for the first cybercrime case prosecuted in the country known as the quadrilha, which involved four defendants, two men and two women, who targeted and coerced 13 victims online and forced them into prostitution, including a 13-year-old girl. (31,32) The sentences given to the two male defendants were the highest given in Cabo Verdean courts; however, in April 2019, the sentences were reduced. (32,33)

Reports indicate that the Judicial Police and the National Police lack the necessary financial and human resources to follow up on investigations, including cases of child labor. The Judicial Police is present on only three of the islands, hindering its ability to address all child labor investigations. (2,34) Furthermore, the government did not maintain comprehensive anti-trafficking law enforcement and victim protection data among its criminal enforcement agencies, and awareness-raising efforts on human trafficking, including child sex tourism, remained insufficient on some islands. (35) Although law enforcement agencies work well together, information sharing and confirmation of case status is extremely limited. (2)

IV. COORDINATION OF GOVERNMENT EFFORTS ON CHILD LABOR

The government has established mechanisms to coordinate its efforts to address child labor (Table 8).

Table 8. Key Mechanisms to Coordinate Government Efforts on Child Labor

Coordinating Body	Role & Description
National Committee for Child Labor Prevention and Eradication in Cabo Verde	Coordinates the execution of the National Action Plan for the Prevention and Eradication of Child Labor and provides a functional mechanism for reciprocal referrals between law enforcement and social services. Led by ICCA. (23,36) It is unknown whether this committee was active in 2018. (2)
ICCA	Coordinates and monitors the implementation of all national programs and activities to prevent and combat child labor. (25) In 2018, worked with UNICEF on a draft law addressing the sexual exploitation of children and on a child protection policy that will be aligned with the UN CRC objectives. (29) In addition, established a hotline for sexual abuse and exploitation cases of children during the reporting period. (29) The hotline received 1,182 reports, including 24 child labor-related cases. (37)

Coordinating Body	Role & Description
Children and Adolescent Committee to Prevent and Combat Sexual Abuse and Exploitation	Contributes to the prevention and elimination of child sexual exploitation by coordinating the activities of member organizations and public and private services. (23) Supervises, monitors, and evaluates the National Plan to Combat Violence Against Children and Adolescents. (2) Led by ICCA. (38) Research was unable to determine whether any activities were undertaken by this committee in 2018.
Observatory for Monitoring and Rapid Identification of Situations of Trafficking in Persons	Coordinates and monitors all efforts to combat human trafficking. Comprises law enforcement, NGOs, civil society and various government agencies. (2,39) Led by the Ministry of Justice and Labor. Met twice in 2018. (29)

V. GOVERNMENT POLICIES ON CHILD LABOR

The government has established policies that are consistent with relevant international standards on child labor (Table 9).

Table 9. Key Policies Related to Child Labor

Policy	Description
National Action Plan for the Prevention and Eradication of Child Labor	Prioritizes the eradication of child labor. Outlines specific objectives, including data collection, institutional capacity building, and enhancement of measures to prevent, protect, and remove children from involvement in child labor. (36) During the reporting period, ICCA implemented the Plan. (40)
National Plan to Combat Sexual Violence Against Children and Adolescents (2017–2019)	Aims to prevent and combat the sexual exploitation of children. The plan incorporates five principle themes: participation of children and adolescents; prevention of situations of vulnerability; mobilizing material and social resources; treatment for both victims and perpetrators; and accountability. (2,41) In February 2018, the first evaluation of the situation in the country was conducted. Results indicated a need for a more comprehensive approach to the treatment of child victims and their families. (42)
Code of Ethics Against the Sexual Exploitation of Children	Guides and governs agencies involved in the tourism sector to combat the sexual exploitation of children and adolescents. (43) Remained in force during the reporting period. (29)
National Action Plan to Combat Trafficking in Persons (2018–2021)†	Prioritizes five strategic areas: prevention, awareness, protection, investigation, and coordination. (44) Establishes the Trafficking in Persons Observatory, a coordination mechanism dedicated to monitoring responses to all human trafficking situations around the country. (2,39)

† Policy was approved during the reporting period.

VI. SOCIAL PROGRAMS TO ADDRESS CHILD LABOR

In 2018, the government funded and participated in programs that include the goal of eliminating and preventing child labor (Table 10). However, gaps exist in these social programs, including the adequacy of efforts to address the problem in all sectors.

Table 10. Key Social Programs to Address Child Labor

Program	Description
Child Labor Awareness Campaigns†	Government program implemented by ICCA and the National Committee for Child Labor Prevention and Eradication that conducts national awareness campaigns on the worst forms of child labor. (45) In 2018, ICCA continued to work with the government on a project to remove children from street vending on Santiago Island and combat child labor in the rural parts of the island. ICCA also began a second project to combat school dropout rates by raising awareness of the importance of education by addressing parents, children, and educators. (5,46)
Help for At-Risk Children†	ICCA-implemented program that provides education, health services, and professional training to vulnerable children and their families. Eight day centers for street children vulnerable to sexual and labor exploitation operate on Boa Vista, Fogo, Sal, Santiago, Santo Antão, and São Vicente islands. (45) Active in 2018. (2)
Child Emergency Centers and Social Protection and Reintegration Centers†	ICCA-implemented program that operates emergency centers for child victims of abuse and sexual exploitation on Santiago, Santo Antão, and São Vicente islands. (23,36,45) The government also operates five social protection and reintegration centers that provide support and educational integration services to children who have experienced long-term trauma. (1,23,27) Active in 2018. (2)
Government Efforts to Increase Access to Education†	Donor-funded programs implemented by the government that ensure access to education for disadvantaged children by paying for school fees, materials, and meals. (47) Active in 2018. (31)

† Program is funded by the Government of Cabo Verde.

MODERATE ADVANCEMENT

Research found that programs to assist children involved in agriculture and domestic work are not sufficient to address the scope of the problem.

VII. SUGGESTED GOVERNMENT ACTIONS TO ELIMINATE CHILD LABOR

Based on the reporting above, suggested actions are identified that would advance the elimination of child labor in Cabo Verde (Table 11).
